

Job Description for Educational Specialist
at
Seeds Educational Services, Inc.

Minimum Education Requirements:

College Degree or Nursing Background:

If Nursing: Minimum of Licensed Psychiatric Technician with minimum of 1 year experience with developmental disabilities

If College: Bachelors Degree in Developmental Psychology, Sociology, or Human Sexuality with emphasis and experience with developmental disabilities

Teaching Credential in Special Education is preferred in addition to Bachelors or in the process of achieving

Work Experience:

Two years of direct experience with people with developmental disabilities
One year experience in teaching in special education, social-sexual education

Additional Requirements:

Valid Drivers License and Insurance
TB test-current and rechecked every 2 years
CPR current for Adults

Services to consist of:

1. Teaching contracted educational classes in socio-sexual education.
2. Develop, discuss all class activities prior to classes taught and provide lesson plan changes to Seeds.
3. All materials utilized for class must have prior approval by Seeds.

4. No Seeds Educational material can be copied or used for personal gain.
5. All materials developed for Seeds Educational Services, Inc. becomes the Seeds property and cannot be sold or used for private gain
6. Socio-Sexual Educational Assessments for people with developmental disabilities primarily with the diagnosis of mild to moderate mental disabilities with minimal assistance.
7. Learning to adapt the assessment tool for more challenging people with disabilities ie. visual impairments, deaf, moderate to severe mental retardation, and multiple disabilities.
8. Curriculum Writing and Work-Book development for Seeds Educational Services, Inc.
9. Assist with training new staff in regards to teaching the various curriculums, socio-sexual materials, and educational equipment.